Emergency 911

Current burn day information for Shasta County is updated at 9:00 a.m. each day. Checking this message prior to 9:00 a.m. will not give you today's burn status.

For residential burning within the city limits or fire districts of Redding, Buckeye, Shasta Lake, Fall River Valley, or Cottonwood, you must obtain a burn permit from your local fire department. Residents living within the Anderson Fire Protection District do not need a permit. Above 1,000 feet in elevation, burn hours are 9:00 a.m. to 12 midnight. Consult your local fire authority for specific burn hours. Below 1,000 feet in elevation, the burn hours are 9:00 a.m. to 5 p.m. Do not start or feed a fire after 3 p.m. All fires below 1,000 feet in elevation must be out by 5 p.m. unless otherwise authorized by the Air Quality Fire Protection Authorities.

If you are burning material that has been stacked using heavy equipment such as a bulldozer, loader, or excavator, please contact the Air Quality Management District at 530-225-5674 to schedule an inspection and obtain the correct permit.
